

Call for papers ADEIMF 2021

ADEIMF's members are invited to present their research papers for the 2021 ADEIMF Summer Conference, September 10th and 11th, at University of Palermo (Sicily). The ADEIMF Conference 2021 will also be held online.

Research papers on the following topics of interest will be considered and selected:

- Financial Institutions (Institutional and Regulatory Issues);
- Management and Governance of Financial Institutions;
- FinTech;
- Financial Markets;
- Risk Management;
- Investments;
- Corporate Finance.

Authors are kindly requested to submit the PAPER they intend to present at the Summer Conference (abstract will be rejected). The paper must be submitted exclusively in anonymous form.

For the purpose of admission, papers written both in Italian and English will be considered.

Corresponding Author

In case of co-authored research paper, it is requested the indication of one corresponding author, appointed for the electronic submission of the paper. Any communication from ADEIMF Board (receipt, rejection etc.) will be addressed to the corresponding author.

The review Process

Submitted papers are subject to a double blind peer review process. The two reviewers are selected among the ADEIMF members according to their availability and their research topics (identified through the ADEIMF keywords) mentioned on their personal web page of the ADEIMF website.

ADEIMF Award Plate 2021

The ADEIMF Award Plate 2021 will be assigned to the author(s) of the best paper presented during the Summer Conference. The ADEIMF 2021 Plate is in memory of Francesca Arnaboldi, Associate Professor in Banking and Finance at Università Statale of Milan.

Together with the plate, a money award is also granted, in accordance with the announcement rules. Further money awards may be granted to the second and the third paper in rank, according to the announcement rules. We thank Intesa Sanpaolo S.p.A. for the full financial support of the three monetary awards.

Deadlines

Papers to be submitted only in electronic format through the ADEIMF website (Attività>Convegni>Submission Paper) after having logged in.

Submission schedule: from May 27th to July 9th 2021.

Successive deadlines are:

- 31st July 2021: announcement of the admitted papers for the ADEIMF Summer Conference 2021;
- 11th September 2021: selected papers are presented (in English or in Italian) at the ADEIMF Summer Conference 2021. The paper can be presented by the authors online or in person.

Opportunity of paper publication in the Journal of Financial Management Markets and Institutions.

Papers presented at the Convention may subsequently be submitted to our Association's Journal-JFMI, following a facilitated pathway for the publication (one referee only).