EURAM 2023 Annual Conference - Paper submission

Deadline: 10 January 2023 - in less than 4 weeks

---

Dear Daniele,

Dear EURAM member and friend,

We would like to draw your attention to the paper submission deadline of 10 January 2023, 2 pm. With our theme «Transforming Business for Good», we invite you to join leading thinkers and practitioners from 14 to 16 June 2023 in Dublin, Ireland, to explore the opportunities and challenges. There will be an online component scheduled on the Tuesday 13 June. You may check here if you might be eligible to present your paper online.

To submit your full paper to EURAM 2023

1. Explore the tracks sponsored by one of the 13 EURAM Strategic Interest Groups (SIGs) or by the Local Organising Committee and choose the topic and community that correspond best to your research.
2. Please respect the deadlines, especially the paper submission deadline: 10 January 2023 – 2 pm Belgian time.
3. Comply with the authors guidelines.

Submit your paper

Should you have any hesitation on which track to select for your paper, view the list of tracks here or contact a track chair by email to find the best fit for your submission.

For general questions, you may contact info@euram.academy.

Join leading thinkers and practitioners in Dublin, Ireland, to explore the opportunities and challenges of transforming business for good. In addition to a full and varied conference programme addressing multiple aspects of the topic, we offer a doctoral colloquium and a series of “labs” to showcase practical applications across various industries. A programme of visits and social events will provide participants with additional opportunities to network.

We look forward to receiving your submission.

Best wishes,

On behalf of the Local Organising Committee,

Andrew Burke, Conference Chair
